Jane Watson is a twenty year veteran of the Environmental Protection Agency; she is currently the chief of the Ecosystem Protection Branch in the EPA Region 6's Water Quality Protection Division. Dr. Watson holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in Microbiology from the University of Kentucky, and a Ph.D. in Environmental Sciences from University of Texas at Dallas. Her doctoral dissertation examined risk models for swimmers in recreational lakes. Jane currently manages a group of scientists and engineers who work with states in setting uses with supporting criteria for waters, and monitoring and assessing water quality.
