

Ralph Calvino, REM

Project Manager
Natural Resources Planning

Company/Location: TCB Inc. Houston, TX

Education:

BS Aquatic Biology, Texas State University, San Marcos, Texas

Registrations/Certifications:

Registered Environmental Manager (REM) - National Registry of Environmental Professionals (NREP)

Total Years of Experience: 17
Years with TCB/AECOM: 4

Area(s) of Expertise / Profile:

Surface Water / Storm Water / Aquatic Resources Management

1990 – 1995 Inland Fisheries Management, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department San Marcos, TX. Participated in fisheries surveys and special studies relating to water quality and fisheries.

1995 – 2003 Field Operations Water Program, TCEQ - Region 12. Served as Senior Aquatic Scientist, developed and lead Receiving Water Assessment studies in response to WWTP permit actions and other special studies in the Houston Region. Specific expertise in water quality, biological (IBI) calculations and evaluations in relation to water quality.

2003 – Present TCB Inc. Works with numerous clients on permitting and water quality issues.

Has experience in designing special studies and developing and implementing discharge calculation methods in support of water quality and load calculation studies.

Works with Storm water Joint Task Force in the Houston area in implementing monitoring activities related to the JTF NPDES/TPDES storm water permit including managing field operations and directing field staff.

Works with Storm water Joint Task Force in the Houston area on Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL) related studies while developing special study scopes and methods and directing staff in field data collection.

Professional Memberships:

Member -Texas Association of Environmental Professionals (TAEP).