

Name: Don McChesney

Current Position: Engineering Manager, Storm Water Program

Current Employer: City of Fort Worth

Summary of Previous Experience:

Over 40 years experience as a professional engineer in public works in a variety of positions in Texas, Arkansas and overseas. Has worked for the City of Fort Worth since 1995 where he has played a key role in updating the city's storm water design standards and developing a comprehensive storm water program. Has served as the Engineering Manager since the City established a storm water utility in 2006.

Education:

University of Texas at Arlington, BS & MS

License/Registration:

Texas Professional Engineer 101659