Jeff Mickler

Jeff is the founder and current President and Chief Executive Officer of Jacob White Construction Co, Cheyenne 1 Development Group, 14200 Gulf Freeway, LTD, KNAB Investments, FBC League City LLC, Medcon Alliance Group, and Cheyenne 1 Management Group. He has over three decades of experience working in the design, construction and development industry. In addition, Jeff is a frequent national speaker on the design/build process and his primary passion—architectural and construction trends affecting the 21st century—and has contributed to or written many articles on the design build process. Further expanding the Design Build Process to LEED projects, Jeff is educating within the industry on the benefits of LEED. Jeff is a member of the Design/Build Institute of America (DBIA) and The United States Green Building Council (USGBC) and founding member of Sullivan Group. Jeff has served or is currently serving on the Board of Directors of over 15 different companies from the YMCA to Financial interests. When he is not working he enjoys flying, and restoring cars. But his real passion is with his family, Jeff enjoys spending time with his wife and four children. They reside in Friendswood, TX.
